City Council Appoints Edward Harris as the New District Two Councilmember

Harris will Serve Until December 2014

SAN DIEGO (April 7, 2014) – Council President Todd Gloria announced the City Council today appointed Edward Harris to serve as the representative for Council District Two, finishing the term of Kevin L. Faulconer, who was elected Mayor. He was sworn in immediately and will participate in City Council meetings starting tomorrow.

“I am happy to welcome Ed Harris to the San Diego City Council,” said Council President Gloria. “I appreciate his willingness to serve and look forward to working with him to make San Diego great. This City Council will consider critical issues including workforce strengthening efforts, infrastructure funding mechanisms, and the budget, which will be unveiled next week. I know Ed will hit the ground running and well serve the people of District Two.”

A new District Two councilmember will be seated for a four year term in December following the General Election.

Council District Two is comprised of Bay Ho, Bay Park, Morena, Midway, North Bay, Mission Beach, Ocean Beach, Pacific Beach, and Point Loma.
